

Mid Semester Examination

27 April 2025 (Sunday)

Section I

Essay Type [20 marks each]

Answer any two questions of the following (within 400 words): [2x20= 40 marks]

1. The concept of human self-realization or ecological self is the main tenet of Arne Naess's 'deep ecology'. Elucidate.
2. Using the concept of 'social ecology', how do Murray Bookchin explain the relationship between nature and culture, and the domination of nature?
3. Give an analytical comment from the argument espoused by Lynn White and Pope John Paul II on the 'ecological crisis'.
4. What is indigenous knowledge? How would you situate indigenous knowledge in the environment-development discourse?

Section II

Short Notes [3 marks each]

Answer any five of the following (within 50 words): [5x3=15 marks]

1. Shallow ecology .
2. The Bishnois .
3. Precept of Buddhism
4. Doctrine of Ahimsa .
5. Ritual cycles of the Tsembaga .
6. Ethics of complementarity .