

Total Marks: 60
Time: 3 hours

BTech [8th Semester]
End Semester Examination
5 May 2024

Section I – Essay Type [12 marks each]

Answer any four questions of the following (within 300 words): [4×12= 48 marks]

1. The concept of human self-realization or ecological self, is the main principle of Arne Naess's 'deep ecology'. Elucidate.
2. What is 'ecofeminism'? Explain how ecofeminists identify the debate between the unjustified domination of women and nature.
3. In his 'social ecology', how does Bookchin explain the relationship between nature and culture and the domination of nature?
4. Give an analytical comment on the argument espoused by Lynn White on the 'ecological crisis'.
5. How has religion shaped our understanding of and our conduct towards nature with reference to the biodiversity ethics of conservation in Buddhism and Hinduism?
6. Discuss the Chipko environmental conservation movement in India.

Section II – Short Notes [3 marks each]

Answer any four of the following (within 50 words): [4×3=12 marks]

1. Environmental ethics
2. Tsembaga ecosystem
3. Wilderness thinking
4. Shallow ecology
5. Christian worldview
6. The Bishnois